Hancock Education Fund Grants

TEACHER GRANT - Up to $800 per teacher. Single classroom.

SCHOOL GRANT - Up to $1,200 per school. Multiple classrooms in one building.

COLLABORATIVE GRANT - Up to $2,000 per project. Multiple buildings in one or many districts.

HANCOCK EDUCATION FUND GUIDELINES

- Projects must have educational content that encourage global literacy and sensitivity to foreign cultures.
- Projects must emphasize creative student thinking and teaching innovative skills.
- Projects must emphasize developing good people skills, communication skills and working in student teams.
- Projects with potential impact beyond the initial grant period will be given priority.
- Interdisciplinary projects will be favored.
- Parent involvement will strengthen a proposal.
- Grants may not be used for tuition or to pay public school personnel.
- Grant funds must supplement, not replace, state or local school funds.
- Grants may not be used to purchase technology equipment.

2007-2008 Hancock Education Fund Grant deadlines are Friday, October 5, 2007 and Friday, March 7, 2008

Up to $60,000 in Hancock Education Fund grants are available to Hancock County teachers!

Applications are available online at www.community-foundation.com or from The Community Foundation office.

ELIGIBILITY:

Most grants are made to tax exempt private agencies classified as 501(c)(3) organizations or public charities as defined by the IRS. Grants may also be awarded to governmental agencies, private educational institutions, or Local Education Agencies (LEA). The programs considered for support must be located in the greater Hancock County area benefiting its residents. Please contact Marty Rothey, Program Officer at The Community Foundation, at 419-425-1100 prior to developing a proposal for HancockREADS.

WE INVITE PROPOSALS THAT:

- Suggest practical approaches to community literacy problems.
- Promote cooperation among agencies without duplicating services.
- Generate community support both professional and volunteer.
- Demonstrate an organization’s ability to secure realistic funding.
- Strengthen an agency’s effectiveness or stability.
- Address prevention as well as remediation.

2007-2008 HancockREADS Grant deadlines are Friday, October 5, 2007 and Friday, April 4, 2008

Up to $10,000 in HancockREADS grant funds are available to Hancock County teachers!

Applications are available online at www.community-foundation.com or from The Community Foundation office.

Questions?
Marty Rothey, Program Officer
419.425.1100
mrothey@community-foundation.com

101 West Sandusky Street, Suite 207
Findlay, Ohio 45840
419.425.1100
www.community-foundation.com